Welcome to our Annual Meeting and Celebration Sunday!

What an amazing year! We are excited you are joining us for Celebration Sunday! You will hear from many people this morning sharing how God has worked in their lives and in our church! We are so thankful for your dedication to our church!

This handout provides a brief summary. The full packet - including detailed financial records, budget, and complete reports - is available online by scanning the QR code or visiting woodstockwesleyan.org/annual-meeting. It will remain online for one week after the annual meeting. After that, copies can be requested by emailing the church office.

Trustee Report

I'm so thankful for another year of serving as Head Trustee at Woodstock Wesleyan. It's been a joy to work alongside our dedicated Keepers of the House who weekly clean, repair, and maintain both the inside and outside of our church. I'm grateful to everyone who helped with our spring exterior cleanup and to the Trustees for their ongoing input and willingness to serve.

This year included successful roof repairs, completed fire safety inspections, and the installation of new hand dryers in our accessible washrooms. Parking lot patching is scheduled in the coming weeks.

After 22 years, I'm deeply thankful for the support and encouragement from our pastors, board, trustees, and congregation. It has been an honour to serve and leave a small mark on WWC. I'm praying God's best for my successor.

"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! His faithful love endures forever." (Psalm 107:1)

Lead Pastor Report

As I complete my 42nd year in ministry, some of my most meaningful moments in ministry came while sitting at the bedsides of those facing terminal illness. I count it a sacred privilege to have shared the hope of the Gospel with them, and I rejoice that all three confessed faith in Christ in their final days—what a powerful reminder of God's grace.

We also celebrated three new commitments to Christ, four baptisms, and growing momentum in discipleship under Tami Mutch-Ketch and Tara Lawrence. A clear, intentional pathway is being developed to help more people become fully devoted followers of Jesus.

Across worship, small groups, and teaching times, we've shared the Good News boldly and seen lives begin to transform. I'm thankful for the tangible generosity of our church family and the steady support offered to those in need.

God is moving—let's keep celebrating!

Associate Pastor Report

This year marked my 24th at Woodstock Wesleyan, and it continues to be a joy to serve here. Leading worship each week is a privilege, and I'm so grateful for our amazing team. Some highlights include baptizing Aria Williams and Darrell Lawrence, helping launch a successful 3-on-3 basketball tournament with 50 youth, and organizing our third Love Atlantic food drive—collecting over 10,000 lbs with five churches.

I was part of our impactful mental health panel and helped shape our renewed discipleship process. I also preached through Revelation, taught evening classes, and took part in school pancake days, Fall Fest, the XY men's conference, and our ladies' conference.

Behind the scenes, I continued visitation, guest follow-up, and pastoral care, while also helping recruit our new summer student, Suava Hoffman. I'm thankful to be a part of the team and I look forward to what God has ahead for our church!

Assistant Pastor Report

As I enter my fourth year at Woodstock Wesleyan, I'm incredibly grateful to be part of a church and community that feels like home. My family has found deep connection here - Marleigh through discipleship, and Ollie with Jesus-loving friends in both preschool and youth.

Youth Ministry has become more intentional, with nearly 140 unique students coming through our doors - many hearing about Jesus for the first time. I'm thankful for the church's support in prayer and giving, and for our dedicated Youth Team.

In Tech, we made steady improvements—replacing a broken amp, restoring lobby and gym audio, and strengthening our team with several new members.

I also had the opportunity to preach eight times, lead communion, help train volunteers, and contribute to our discipleship pathway planning. I feel fully integrated and valued as part of the leadership team!

Children's Pastor Report

It's a joy to serve alongside amazing pastors, volunteers, and a growing group of kids and families. With about 20 children attending weekly and a total pool of 70, our focus remains on creating a Christ-centered space where kids are loved, discipled, and pointed to Jesus.

We hosted several impactful outreach events - Back to School Bash, Fall Fest, Birthday Bash, and the Easter Egg Hunt - connecting with families both in and beyond our church. We also welcomed two wonderful new leaders, Emily Douglass and Kasie Schriver, whose passion is already making a difference. I'm incredibly grateful for our faithful volunteer team and worship leaders who pour into our kids each week. One of my favorite moments is watching our kids worship—it's a beautiful reminder of God's goodness.

Looking ahead, I'm excited to grow our team, reach new families, and deepen discipleship. God is moving, and I'm honored to be part of it!
